Remember in Thoughts, Cards and Prayers

Please keep in your thoughts and prayers member, Elsa Ridley. She is still in Covid lockdown at the Adams Place, but is doing well. She would love cards that say. “Hello.” 1927 Memorial Blvd. Apt. A205, Murfreesboro, TN 37129

On February 1st, Rose Marie Shipley, our RWRC Chaplain, had knee replacement surgery. She is at home and doing physical therapy. She loves cards as well. Her address is 2620 Battleground Dr. Murfreesboro, TN, 37129.

Also, Sharon Suttell had recent surgery. A note to her would be most appreciated. Her address is 2623 Battleground Drive Murfreesboro, TN 37129

Brenda Baggett continues to rest at home after issues with a blood clot in her leg and now one in her shoulder. Her address is 1437 Haynes Drive. Murfreesboro, TN 37129.

If you could also drop a card to Frederick Stevenson, son of Lynn Clayton, that would be amazing. He has been very ill. 18253 Deep Forest Ave. Baton Rouge, LA 70817

January Meeting in Review

Stephen Skelton, the founder of the American Bible Project, was our speaker at the January meeting. He spoke about the Project and how an Aitken Bible is being placed in the hands of every teacher who teaches students about the American Revolution. Aitken Bibles were also being put in each school library through donations. This is occurring in Tennessee schools as well as many other state schools. Stephen shared during the American Revolution, colonists were unable to get copies of the King James Bible, so the Aitken Bible was printed and made available for purchase. The Founding Fathers approved the Aitken Bible and actually encouraged colonists to read it. The Aitken Bible which the American Bible Project is sharing is the authentic reproduction of the first American Bible. Historians refer to the Aitken Bible as the "Bible of the American Revolution". Mr. Skelton was an excellent speaker sharing important, historical information that was positive and showed how this good work continues to take place in the United States. It was wonderful to hear that many of our members supported Stephen and this Project.
